APPLE BANK FOR SAVINGS NAMES VANESSA TURNER ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT AND BRANCH MANAGER OF ITS CHELSEA OFFICE

NEW YORK, NY – AUGUST 15, 2018 – Apple Bank for Savings has announced the appointment of Vanessa Turner as Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager at the Chelsea branch office located at 250 West 23rd Street in Manhattan. Ms. Turner joins Apple Bank from TDBank, where she most recently served as Store Manager of the Bedford Avenue branch office in Crown Heights, Brooklyn.

James Matera, Executive Vice President and Head of Apple Bank’s Consumer Banking Division, said, “We are very fortunate to have Vanessa Turner join the Apple Bank team. She brings over 29 years of retail banking experience to Apple Bank, having spent the last eleven years in management positions with TDBank.”

Ms. Turner first joined TD Bank in 2007 as an Assistant Manager and Teller Services Manager in the main branch office in Brooklyn Heights. Over the next 11 years, she rose to Assistant Store Manager in the Gravesend branch and to Store Manager for TDBank’s branch in Crown Heights. Ms. Turner began her banking career as a teller with National Westminster Bank in 1989. She subsequently served as Customer Services Representative, Financial Services Representative and Portfolio Manager for Nat West and its successor bank, Fleet Financial. When Fleet was acquired by Bank of America in 2004, Ms. Turner became an Assistant Manager in the Bushwick office and later a Manager Trainee in the Bay Ridge banking center.

A native of Guyana, Ms. Turner moved to the US when she was 16 years old. She completed high school in the US and attended Sutton Business School.

She resides in the Lefferts Garden section of Brooklyn with her husband and two children. Over the years, Vanessa has been very active in the Parent Teacher Association of the local school her children attended, serving as treasurer and assistant vice president.
