APPLE BANK FOR SAVINGS APPOINTS CAMILLE COLE ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT

FOREST HILLS, NY – FEBRUARY 25, 2015 – Apple Bank for Savings announced today that it has promoted Camille Cole to Assistant Vice President. Camille has been Assistant Treasurer and Branch Manager of Apple Bank’s Kew Gardens, Queens office located at 116-12 Queens Boulevard.

James Matera, Executive Vice President of Apple’s Consumer Banking Division, said, “Since joining Apple Bank 11 years ago, Camille has become a highly regarded member of our branch management team. Her talent and success in business development, customer service and community outreach are an asset to the bank.”

Prior to becoming Branch Manager of the Kew Gardens office in 2013, Camille was Assistant Treasurer and Assistant Branch Manager at the bank’s East 81st Street branch in Manhattan. She had been appointed Assistant Manager of the East 81st Street branch in 2008 and Assistant Treasurer in 2012.

Camille joined Apple Bank in 2004 as a Management Trainee at the Court Street office in Brooklyn and served as a teller for several years. She was promoted to Executive Assistant in 2008 at Apple’s 1320 Avenue of the Americas branch office at West 53rd Street.

Camille is a member of the Forest Hills Chamber of Commerce and an active participant in Apple Bank’s ABCs of Banking student education program.

Camille grew up in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn and is a graduate of Edward R. Murrow High School. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Management and Finance from Adelphi University in 2004. Camille is a licensed New York Life, Accident and Health Insurance agent. She currently resides in the Bronx.
