APPLE BANK FOR SAVINGS APPOINTS CHIRAN TULSI VICE PRESIDENT

FLUSHING, NY – FEBRUARY 25, 2015 – Apple Bank for Savings announced today that it has promoted Chiran Tulsi to Vice President. Chiran has been an Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager at the bank’s 43-73 Kissena Boulevard branch office in Flushing, Queens.

James Matera, Executive Vice President and Head of Apple Bank’s Consumer Banking Division, said, “In his ten-year tenure with Apple Bank, Chiran has become a valuable member of the bank’s branch management team. He has built an impressive track record of success in business development, customer service and community outreach for the bank in the Flushing section of Queens.”

Chiran first joined Apple Bank in 2005 as an Assistant Vice President and Branch Manager at the bank’s Avenue M branch in the Midwood section of Brooklyn. He transferred to the Kissena Boulevard office in Flushing in 2006, where he has remained for the last nine years.

Prior to joining Apple Bank, Chiran had been with the Bowery Savings Bank, Greenpoint Savings Bank and North Fork Bank for 15 years, where he held customer service and branch management positions of increasing responsibility.

Chiran is active in various local organizations in the Flushing area, including the local Sikh temple and the Parent Teacher Associations of several local public schools.

A native of Guayana, Chiran graduated from York College with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. He is a licensed New York Life, Accident and Health Insurance agent. He lives with his wife and one child in Queens.
